

Executive Chef Massimo Pisati

Originally from Milan, Italy Executive Chef Massimo Pisati was lured into the culinary world when his passion for this industry and for food was recognized at an early age. Massimo went on to study the culinary arts at the Culinary Academy in Milan, Italy. He continued with his career at exclusive restaurants and hotels in Europe, Asia and now in the United States.

Massimo's culinary philosophy and passion reflects his roots and traditional upbringing, allowing the natural flavors of the food to always have an expression of their own.

Among his many accomplishments he was awarded a "5 Star Diamond Award" an achievement that only 1000 Chefs in the world have and a "3 Golden Spoon Award" by Florida Trend Magazine.

While he has been the Executive Chef for The BiCE Group for 13 years he believes whole-heartedly in staying active, continuously learning and always having fun.
